Argumentative Research Paper

Your final assignment will be an argumentative research paper. The Research paper will be an in-depth essay that involves investigation, documentation, and construction of an argument on any of the topics list in the focus for this course document. The student should use at least 4-6 sources for this paper.

You may select any topic list in the focus for this course document. Your essay will be in proper MLA Format, double-spaced, 12 font, and New Time Roman. Your paper should be between 4-6 pages.

In the research paper, use the MLA handbook to cite your sources. You must have in-text citations. If you use it in your paper, you must put it in your work cited and vice versa. You will follow the format below.

Introductory Paragraph will include a catchy statement to grab your reader’s attention. In addition, you must have a thesis statement. Your body paragraphs will have a topic sentence that supports your thesis statement. You must provide examples, details, and support to back up your topic sentence. Finally, Your summary paragraph will restate your thesis statement. In addition, touch on the main points of your essay, and end with a strong statement.
