1. In the “Basic Database Searching” video what is the sample topic?

2. What database is used/recommended in the video?

3. What box should you select on the left hand side to include only the complete text of the articles?

4. If you want to limit your results to a certain date range what should you do?

5. On the left hand side of the results are the words “Source Type.” What does this enable you to do with your results?

6. What is an abstract?

7. Where can you find the option for a computer generated citation for your article?

8. Once you choose an appropriate article, where do you locate the full-text of that article?

9. What are two different ways you can get reference help at the library if you need further assistance?