<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Position D</th>
<th>Position C</th>
<th>Position B</th>
<th>Position A</th>
<th>Solution</th>
<th>What's missing?</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Reference template</td>
<td>How to cite something you found on a website in APA Style: What to do when information is missing</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
48. Audio podcast

49. Video podcast

⇒ Provide the home page URL rather than the full URL, because the video is easily available by search.

50. Map

51. Painting

52. Photograph

53. Speech recording

54. Interview recording

⇒ When an interview can be retrieved (e.g., in audio, video, or transcript form), it can be cited in a reference list.
⇒ Interviews that are not recoverable are cited as personal communications in text only.
⇒ In text, use the following citation: (Barnes, 1969).

55. Transcription of an audio or a video file (podcast, interview, speech, etc.)